The new military baking plant in Fola produces 12,000 rations of bread daily for the Army, Navy and Air Corps units in the Altura region. The bread, of very poor quality, has been the source of many cases of colitis among the soldiers and sailors. The soldier's food ration in this area is meager and has been reduced since last November. Soldiers who have voiced protests have been transferred to the so-called "Enemies of Socialism Companies" which have been established in various posts throughout Croatia.
